

Professional Profile

Ms. McGrath is a partner within IBM Global Business Services, energy and communications sector in Eastern Canada, and is one of four national leaders of this sector. She is also a vice-president of LGS, an IBM company, and in this capacity, she is a member of the executive committee of Québec.

Being responsible for business strategy in the energy sector, including public utilities, Ms. McGrath has several achievements to her credit. These include preparing the development plan for her practice and carrying out strategic engagements in energy efficiency and ICT, customer management, operational optimization, change management and enterprise architecture.

With more than 20 years of experience in the consulting area, Ms. McGrath has held senior management positions in other companies where she demonstrated her management talents for generating sustained growth rates in the management of profit centres, acquisition and restructuring projects as well as numerous labor contract negotiations. Ms. McGrath is also a public speaker and regularly publishes in magazines specialized in the energy sector.

Ms. McGrath is a graduate of McGill University in psychology and business administration. She is involved in her community and, for more than 15 years, has been a member of several boards of directors of organizations dedicated to mental health and technological advancement. Along this line, Ms. McGrath is chairman of the board of Café Le Signet, a non for profit organization dedicated to helping people re-integrate the workplace. Ms. McGrath shares her free time with her spouse and her two boys.

